CAPITAL CAMPAIGN OFFICIALLY LAUNCHES!

If you haven't already heard, The California Genealogical Society's Capital Campaign has just launched February 1st with a goal of raising $1.2 million dollars. The goal was created to coincide with the beginning of our 120th Anniversary in 2018. A committee chaired by Chris Pattillo was created to lead this effort. Chris also has the considerable help and talent of both Jane Lindsey and Sandy Fryer to ensure that the campaign will be a huge success.

Why is a Capital Campaign needed? The money raised will help ensure that our society will remain a leader in genealogy and give us the necessary financial cushion to weather various storms in the future.

Now that you know about the Capital Campaign, I hope you enjoy the beginning of a new monthly series of blog posts entitled Why I Contributed to the Capital Campaign. The first will focus on life member, long-time volunteer, donor and previous board member Jim Sorenson.

March 4th and 5th, 2017 - the Old Mint becomes a pop-up museum of San Francisco history more than 75 exhibitors at the San Francisco History Days at the Old Mint.

Join community historians, archivists, genealogists, archaeologists, researchers, educators, reenactors and other history enthusiasts for a free Community Open House at this historic site.

This event is free, open to the public, and wheelchair accessible.

If you will be in CGS Library this month, you will be in time to peruse an interesting array of used books for sale. Take a look while there are some left, three shelves of them at the moment. They cover a wide array of subjects and authors, from Pauline Kael to MFK Fisher, a bit of British history, and San Francisco history, travel books, novels and a lovely booklet on playing the Highland bagpipes!

They are attracting interest so come take a look before the end of February, when they will move on from this step in their journey.

17th Annual CGS Salt Lake City Research Trip

Are you on the fence about whether a group genealogy research trip should be in your plans for 2017?

Here's one: The deadline for the early bird pricing is February 10th. The final deadline is March 10th. Right now, we've only had two people register for the trip and we need seven more attendees to make it a go.

So what are you waiting for? Help us continue the annual tradition of our Salt Lake City Genealogy Research trip by registering today--you'll be glad you came!

Need more reasons to go? Review Lisa Gorrell's top reasons to visit the Family History Library in Salt Lake City in her latest blog post.

CGS Volunteers

One of the best things about volunteering at the California Genealogical Society is that we welcome "Job Sharing." If you would love to volunteer, but are hesitant about taking on a job on your own, job sharing is just for you!

Tell us what interests you and we will try to pair you up with someone to share the fun!

Meanwhile, CGS looking for a few folks to "share" some of these volunteer opportunities:

- In-House Events Assistant
- Special Events Chair
- Events Calendar Coordinator (can be done from home!)
- Field Trip Coordinator

For details about any of these volunteer opportunities, contact Kathleen Beitiks

Classes and SIGs

	Introduction to Genealogy A free class on the fundamentals of genealogical research.

Saturday, February 4 from 10:15 a.m. - 12:15 p.m.

DNA Special Interest Group

led by Pam Miller.

The DNA Special Interest Group is the next step for those who have submitted DNA samples or are considering it and want to connect with others to learn and share the best steps and strategies to make family connections from the results.

Saturday, February 4 from 1 - 3 p.m.

Family Tree Maker SIG

A monthly forum devoted exclusively to the Family Tree Maker™ Software from Software MacKiev. Hosted by facilitators Ron Madson and Karen Halfon

Saturday, February 18 from 1 - 4 p.m.

San Francisco Special Interest Group

Join the conversation with the CGS San Francisco Special Interest Group (SF-SIG). We uncover records, view historical photographs and maps, read historical newspapers, manuscripts and other San Francisco records. Our core research guide is Nancy Peterson's book, Raking the Ashes: Genealogical Strategies for Pre-1906 San Francisco Research, published by CGS.

Saturday, February 18 from 10 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

Young Genealogists Gathering

The Young Genealogists group invite 18-45 year old genealogists for an informal work day at the CGS library. Bring a research question, brick wall, or any backlog of genealogy work you've been meaning to get to. We'll use the CGS library and each other as we strategize through brick walls and share resources that have been helpful in our searches.

Saturday, February 11 from 10 a.m. - 3 p.m.

Eastern European Genealogy

Eastern European genealogy presents unique challenges to the researcher because of shifting boundaries, multiple languages, multiple religions, politics and population movement. This class will highlight the best resources and strategies for those with ancestors primarily from regions that were formerly parts of the Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth and the Austro-Hungarian Empire.

Saturday, February 11 from 1:30 - 3:30 p.m.

Migration to the Gold Rush

The discovery of gold was a milestone in the history of the California but also influenced migration and movement across the whole country. Learn about the variety of methods used to get to the gold country and what might have influenced your ancestors' progress, pathways and final destination.

Saturday, February 25 from 1 - 3:30 p.m.

Getting More from FamilySearch.org

This class was envisioned as a preparation for a trip to the California Genealogical Society's Family History Library in Salt Lake City, but it will be helpful to anyone who wants to get the most research bang out of the FamilySearch.org website.

Class meets at the Oakland Family History Center
Sunday, March 5 from 1 - 3:30 p.m.

Building Skills for Successful Family History Research

This new series is for beginning researchers and anyone who wants to build a foundation of research skills that can be used with all types of online and offline records and resources.

Saturdays, March 11 thru April 8 from 1 - 3:30 p.m.

Irish Ancestry Online Network Get Together

2016 was a banner year for release of Irish parish and civil online records. Come share what you have found or learned and meet others from the online Special Interest Group solving similar problems in Irish research. An Index to all online 2016 posts (links, articles, etc) will be provided.

Saturday, March 25 from 10:30 a.m. to Noon

For additional events check out the San Francisco Bay Genealogy Calendar.
Also visit our Eventbrite profile page to see the latest class additions and descriptions.
