Marriage Notices

The loss of many San Francisco records in the earthquake and fire of 1906 makes alternate sources extremely important. Kathleen C. Beals has extracted the brides' and grooms' names from all the paid marriage notices that ran in the San Francisco Chronicle in 1891 plus the date of the notice. This issue of The Nugget contains surnames from A through Clarke. Future issues will continue the listing.

Marriage Notices

The loss of many San Francisco records in the earthquake and fire of 1906 makes alternate sources extremely important. Kathleen C. Beals has extracted the brides' and grooms' names from all the paid marriage notices that ran in the San Francisco Chronicle in 1891 plus the date of the notice. This issue of The Nugget contains surnames from Clausen through Engelbreth. Future issues will continue the listing.

Marriage Notices

The loss of many San Francisco records in the earthquake and fire of 1906 makes alternate sources extremely important. Kathleen C. Beals has extracted the brides' and grooms' names from all the paid marriage notices that ran in the San Francisco Chronicle in 1891 plus the date of the notice. This issue of The Nugget contains surnames from Engle through Hedquist. Future issues will continue the list.

Woodside School Class, 1893: At least four of the Walker siblings attended the "Old Red School House," including Blanche, Frances Emma "Fanny," William John "Will," and George. Although a new building replaced the school house in 1918, the original building was not razed until the mid-1900s. A local history by Gilbert RICHARDS, Crossroads: People and Events of the Redwoods of San Mateo County, contains an earlier photograph of Woodside students, along with a good summary of the town's history and residents. The book is out of print, but the Woodside library has a copy.

Sequoia High, Redwood City, Calif., 1897: Family and friends said Blanche Walker always aspired to be a teacher and took her studies very seriously. To attend high school, she boarded in Redwood City with a minister's family. Her school photograph seems to indicate that she did not know all her classmates, as this is the only picture on which she left some names blank. Blanche graduated from Sequoia High at age 19, passed the teacher's examination, and began teaching in a one-room school house in nearby Pescadero.

Roosevelt Grammar School, Burlingame, Calif., 1929: Blanche spent more than a quarter-century teaching elementary school students. According to an article in the Nov. 27, 1976, Redwood City Tribune, when she taught at Roosevelt Grammar School she initially made $50 a month for nine months. This salary eventually increased to nearly $200 a month.

I am deeply indebted to three cousins for these photos and a great deal of information. Gordon WALKER, a nephew of Blanche, loaned me the school pictures and let me copy information from the Walker family bible. Another cousin, William Reese WALKER, has thoroughly researched and documented the Walker family. His ongoing correspondence and willingness to share his findings have been a source of joy and inspiration. And Pat WINOKUR, a niece of Blanche WALKER, has a remarkable gift for telling stories that bring Blanche and her siblings to life.

I hope that other readers of The Nugget will find their ancestors in these photos. □

Marriage Notices

The loss of many San Francisco records in the earthquake and fire of 1906 makes alternate sources extremely important. Kathleen C. Beals has extracted the brides' and grooms' names from all the paid marriage notices that ran in the San Francisco Chronicle in 1891 plus the date of the notice. This issue of The Nugget contains surnames from Heffernan through Lunstedt. Future issues will continue the list.

Compiled, the author states, "As a gift to our children, and theirs," this family history is a gift long to be cherished. What an excellent way to preserve so many photos, family records, and anecdotes.

Mention is made of the family beginning in Wales in ancient times. In 1710 two brothers came from south Wales to the Welsh Tract in New Castle County, Delaware. In time, movement to Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Iowa, Illinois, and California was the family's pattern.

By some bit of magic, six generations of the Matthews Family (beginning with the ancestor born in 1800) are graphically presented in only 36 pages. Included are 43 photographs, with a clear pedigree chart, placing each person mentioned in his proper family and generation.

Excerpts from several letters give authentic, contemporary views of life and events of the times.

Both the northern and southern areas of California have been enriched by members of this family settling here.

Whenever standing to sing the National Anthem before an event, remember that this custom was instituted about 1920 by Mr. Frank Matthews of Huntington Park, California, a member of this family.

— Alice HOVE

Marriage Notices

The loss of many San Francisco records in the earthquake and fire of 1906 makes alternate sources extremely important. Kathleen C. Beals has extracted the brides' and grooms' names from all the paid marriage notices that ran in the San Francisco Chronicle in 1891 plus the date of the notice. This issue of The Nugget contains surnames from Murphy through Quirk. Future issues will continue the list.

Marriage Notices

The loss of many San Francisco records in the earthquake and fire of 1906 makes alternate sources extremely important. Kathleen C. Beals has extracted the brides' and grooms' names from all the paid marriage notices that ran in the San Francisco Chronicle in 1891 plus the date of the notice. This issue of The Nugget contains surnames from Von Walters through Zweifel and concludes the record.
